

Painting with Scissors

Primary Ones

Colour Paper Collage, 2021

Inspired by the painter Henri Matisse who began making large collages when he could no longer stand up to paint, we cut all kinds of organic shapes and arranged them into pleasing combinations in order to create our very own collages.

We learnt we could draw and paint without using pencils and brushes by experimenting with different mediums and materials. We hope to try more in the future!

